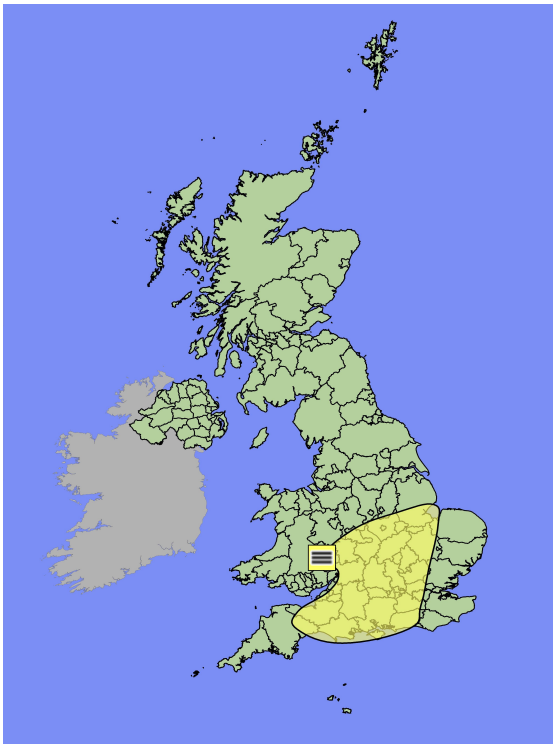
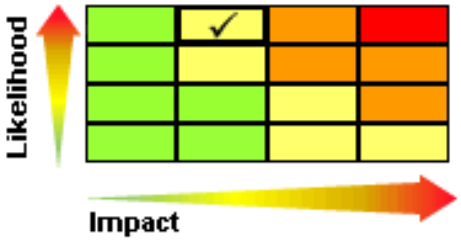
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Although the denser patches of fog should thin by late morning, some patches will persist a little longer, especially along the south coast.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 08:00 on Thu, 01st Mar 2012 until 10:00 on Thu, 01st Mar 2012

Widespread and locally dense fog will affect many parts of southern and central England this morning including the outskirts of London with visibility below 100m in many places. This may lead to some disruption to travel. The denser fog patches should thin during the mid to late morning.
